

Sustain Announces Marc Brenner as New CEO

01/11/2024 10:00 AM Eastern Daylight Time

New Waterford, OH-Sustain, LLC (Sustain) a leading provider of full-service comprehensive management services with custom approaches to environmental emergency response, waste management, rental services, and indoor air quality solutions, announced today the appointment of Marc Brenner as the company's new Chief Executive Officer.

Brenner will replace Dan Croghan who announced earlier this week his intention to retire from Sustain. Brenner will assume day-to-day leadership of the Company while working through transitional items.

"I know that I speak for everyone at Sustain in thanking Dan Croghan for his leadership and tireless dedication to the company," said Brenner. "I am incredibly excited to assume this new role and for the future of the company. We have an exceptionally talented team at Sustain that is focused on taking decisive actions to transform the business, continuing our disruptive mentality and unlocking future growth opportunities."

Before joining Sustain, Brenner, 45, worked through the industry spending twenty years in various roles with notable accomplishments in growth strategy, team development, driving sales volume, organizational structure, operational efficiencies, and cost savings.

"I am excited to welcome Marc to his new role as CEO. Marc brings invaluable experience from his military service, his roles managing projects and programs at some of the top environmental companies and his exceptional success as the COO over the past year and a half. He is the right person at the right time to build the team that will take Sustain from good to great to the best of the best," said Dan Croghan.
